

Home School Agreement Policy

Mission Statement

- Offer a relaxed and friendly environment.
- Provide a broad and balanced study of all areas of the National Curriculum.
- Constantly strive to achieve high standards in all avenues of learning.
- Uphold the 'moral and manners' of the Prophet Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam by providing teaching through self-respect, respect for parents, elders and others, through the development of personal responsibilities.
- Promote Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural (SMSC) development in all aspects of the curriculum and extra-curricular activities. Also providing weekly assemblies – incorporating 'citizenship and PSHE' through the teachings of the Qur'an and Sunnah.
- Help children to understand their role in the community, promoting community cohesion and British values.
- Impart knowledge to the pupils for the pleasure of Allah Ta'aalah.
- Have a positive relationship between the school and the parents.

The school will:

- Maintain a high standard of education, keeping in line with national curriculum with Islamic ethos.
- Provide a safe, secure and happy environment, where children are well cared for, treated fairly and where teaching is good.
- Encourage children to take care of school property, their surroundings and others around them.
- Encourage and motivate your child to do the very best they can.
- Be open and welcoming and offer opportunities for you to become involved in school life.
- Endeavour to meet the requirements of children whatever their needs to achieve their full potential.
- Promote Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural (SMSC) development in all aspects of the curriculum and extra-curricular activities, teach children to develop a positive attitude towards everyone regardless of difference in gender, race, culture, belief, values, age, and need.
- Help children to understand their role in the community, promoting community cohesion and British values.

- Keep parent's informed about your child's progress, homework, attendance, punctuality and about general school matters.

The parents/carer will:

- Make sure that each child attends school regularly and arrives on time. If the child is absent or late then a phone call should be made stating the reason for absence or lateness.
- Make sure children wear the correct uniform every day, with the correct haircut (same grade all over)
- Ensure children do not bring mobile phones, iPod or any other gadget to school. Otherwise will be confiscated.
- Build a positive partnership with the school for the benefit of their children.
- Avoid taking children on holiday during term time.
- Support their children with homework tasks & other learning opportunities and ensure homework is returned within the set time.
- Support and work with the school in any behaviour management programmes as outlined in the behaviour policy summary (including support for the 'on day detention' policy)
- Support the school's values, rules and policies, by encouraging a positive attitude towards school.
- Work in partnership with the school to develop positive attitudes towards those from different cultures and races and with different feelings, values and beliefs.
- Let the school know immediately of any problems at home or medical concerns that may affect their children's work or behaviour at school or ability to do homework.
- Read and act upon any information sent home.
- Endeavour to provide a safe, secure and happy environment at home.
- Encourage other opportunities for home learning.
- Support the school and proprietor in fundraising and other activities.
- Foster a positive attitude towards education and the school and use discretion when discussing issues or grievances in front of children, as these may have a negative effect on their outlook.
- Inform the school immediately if any of the contact details change.

The child will:

- Attend everyday on time expecting to work hard.

- Be ready for lessons, on time and with the correct equipment / uniform including correct haircut.
- Always do best in all areas of school work, both in lessons and at home.
- Take advantage of all opportunities offered to me by the school, both within and outside lessons.
- Show respect for all members of the school and all property within the school.
- Follow the school's behaviour policy and uniform code.
- Respect other's culture, race, feelings, beliefs and values.
- Accept responsibility for the things they do.
- Take responsibility for school and homework and to ask for help and to do their best in all they undertake.
- Be kind and speak politely to everyone in school.
- Take good care of the building, equipment and school grounds.
- Behave in a safe way.
- Be helpful and friendly.
- Tell a member of staff if they are worried or unhappy.
- Ensure that they will take home all school letters.
- Not to bring any gadget in school
- Not to carry any unacceptable stuff e.g e-cig, knife, lighter.

Together we will:

Value one another as partners with our children.

Listen to and support each other in our aim to provide the best education for our children.

I would appreciate if you and your son could read, sign and return the home school learning agreement.
